Article 7 - Committees

The various activities shall be coordinated by special committees. Each committee shall have a director appointed by the President or as a volunteer.

The director is responsible to appoint or solicit volunteers to assist on a particular committee.

The Club Committees shall consist of Program, NECCC, PSA, Refreshments, Judging, Competition, Publicity, Raffle, Nominating, Equipment and Property, Newsletter, Membership, and any Special Interest Groups. Whoever chairs such committees will become familiar with any procedures, rules and regulations pertaining to said committees. These procedures, rules and regulations will be made available by the Club Officers and the Directors.

The Executive Committee shall consist of the Club Officers and the Directors, and shall be responsible for the general operation of the Club, and will be chaired by the President. The Executive Committee members shall meet at least once a club calendar year to determine the Club's policies. Any new policies or changes in old policies may be voted by a majority vote of the Executive Committee consisting of a quorum of 2/3 of its members.

Article 8 – Vacancies

If the Presidency should become vacant for any reason then the Vice-President shall resume responsibility for the remaining Club calendar year. If any other office shall become vacant for any reason, shall be filled by appointment by the President or the Executive Committee for the remaining Club calendar year.

Article 9 - Amendments

The Club Bylaws may be amended by a majority vote with a quorum of at least 3/4 of the members in good standing and present at the meeting when the vote is held. Due notice shall be given to all members, at least 30 days in advance to said meeting, stating the proposed amendment(s).

Article 10 - Loss of Rights and Privileges

If any Executive Officer, Director or Member creates hardship for the Club by acting in an unruly, distractive, disruptive or abusive manner at a General or Executive Meeting, or fails to comply with all bylaws of the Club, then that individual may forfeit their Rights and Privileges as defined in Article 3, Section 3.3 of these Bylaws. This forfeiture of Rights and Privileges may be in the form of expulsion from the Club.

Forfeiture of these Rights and Privileges will be determined at a Special Meeting. The President will call this Special Meeting within 30 days of the alleged offense(s). A quorum of at least 2/3 of the Executive Officers, Directors and Club Members shall be present along with the Member in Question and, if necessary, any other Members who can supply additional facts. The event(s) will be discussed in an open forum by all parties where it will be determined if the Member in Question violated any bylaw(s). Upon deliberation by the Executive Officers, Directors and Club Members a decision will be determined by a majority vote, consisting of at least 3/4 of the Executive Officers, Directors and Club Members at attendance to whether to expel or not to expel the Member in Question.

If a member is expelled from the Club, he/she may not reapply for admittance into the Club at any time. The expelled member may not seek the full or pro-rated refund of their membership fees.

Article 11 - Interclub Competitions

Assabet Valley Camera Club participates in interclub competitions that are open to all members of AVCC. Any expenses related to an interclub competition must be approved by the Executive Board prior to participation. A chairperson will be responsible for following the regulations set forth by the interclub competition and will report back to the Executive Board and the General Membership regarding the timelines and rules of the competition as well as being responsible for the selection of entries, collection of submittals, and safe return of any printed images.

Amendments

December 2001

1. If a member has an issue, that member shall approach the President or Vice-President to express their concern. The Executive Committee will meet within 14 days, if feasible, but no later than 30 days, to resolve the issue.
2. Nude slides shall be allowed into competition, with the stipulation that before the slide is viewed, either the projectionist or announcer will state that the next slide is of a nude nature, or that the club will have a slide right before the nude slide stating that the next slide is of a nude nature. Other stipulations include that the image must be tasteful. (i.e. no crotch shots)

3. Anyone who exhibits threatening behavior, either verbal or physical, during any club function will be promptly asked by the President or Vice-President to leave the function. Later, members of the executive board, who witnessed the event, will vote on whether or not to remove the member permanently from the club. Members involved in the incident should abstain from voting. Dues will not be refunded to the member.
