'High Key'

We are guessing most everyone is either scratching their head, or in a panic about the "high key" subject for scavenger hunt because we are too!!!

Todd is planning on showing a tutorial at the banquet night meeting.

If you will not be there, we will find a way of making it available.

Sensor Cleaning:

Shawn Plouffe will be coming the night of the banquet to do sensor cleaning

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Hudson Cultural Council needs your help! It needs the people who live and work in Hudson to help advise them about how best to allocate public dollars for programs and activities in the arts, humanities and interpretive sciences. Please take their online community input survey by June 30th. Here is the link: tinyurl.com/hcc2019survey

Over the last six years the Assabet Valley Camera Club has received generous funding from the Hudson Cultural Council for a number of grants. This year Norm Smith's Snowy Owls to Saw-Whet Owls and Lisa Cuchara's Creating Fine Art Photography from Historic Sights and Rusty Things were subsidized with grants from the Council.

Please take a few minutes to fill out their online survey. Thank you!

Sensor Cleaning

Shawn Plouffe will be coming the night of the banquet, June 5th to do sensor cleaning. He is still only charging $35. It's a great deal. Shawn will be at the club by 6pm.

Please let me know if you will be bringing a camera/cameras in for cleaning so I can Give Shawn an idea of how many there might be.

NOTE:

For those of us who are unfamiliar with "sensor dust", I have copied a link that explains it, and how to Test for it. That will help you decide if your sensor does need cleaning. If you have a DSLR, and change lens, shoot in less than clean conditions, you probably have some dust. If you notice "small spots" on you image, in the same place, all the time, you have dust. It is more noticeable when you stop down your F stops....f10-f22 for example. At f2.8- f8, etc. it probably won't be noticeable on the image. Note, if you do have spots, it is easily corrected in Photoshop using content aware, etc., but If you have a lot of spots, it is a pain to fix them each time. Here is the link, hope it helps. Any questions please let me know.

Hello Local Artists!

As you may be aware, the State has given first right of refusal to the Town of Hudson to purchase the Armory property located at Washington and Park Streets (the proposal to acquire the property and intention of its future use is due August 13, 2019). The Hudson Downtown Business Improvement District has formed a Steering Committee to work with the Town to determine feasibility of converting the property to a Community Art Center. A feasibility study is underway, and YOUR input is needed to gauge interest, build support, and define a business plan that is sustainable. Click this link to take the online survey and share your collective voice with the town... <http://survey.constantcontact.com/survey/a07egcodanzjvzwmbo1/start>

You're, also, invited to a public input and vision session on Wednesday, June 12th from 5-6 pm at Out of Office Co-Working Space, located at 43 Broad St. Suite C300, Hudson, MA
